CHAPTER 11 REORGANIZATION, CIVIL BUSINESS LITIGATION

At CHWWA we focus early on understanding the clients' business goals and make every effort to have the litigation strategy coincide with those goals to the maximum extent possible. For 40 years,

I have focused my practice on civil business litigation and Chapter 11 reorganization for debtors and creditors. My practice takes me throughout our country's state, federal and appellate courts to litigate matters, including constitutional issues, contract disputes of all kinds, business torts, antitrust violations, lender liability disputes, fraud, racketeering, tortious interference, breach of fiduciary duty and eminent domain. My bankruptcy practice focuses on Chapter 11 reorganization for debtors and representing large creditors in a range of Chapter 11s, including amusement park operations, residential/commercial land developers and builders, hoteliers, manufacturers, timber companies and various other business operations.
